Terms and Conditions:

Lessons will be given every week regularly. Lessons are private, parents are encouraged to sit in on lessons, but siblings are not allowed in order to prevent distractions.

Cancellations: One makeup lesson per term will be allowed, for a total of two makeup lessons for whatever reason. In order to cancel a lesson without being charged for it I must be notified by 9 p.m. the night before the day of the lesson. Notification must be by an email to zottol@mail.uniongraduatecollege.edu, by a phone call to my cell (518) 859-6143, or by text message to the same number.

Extra Time: In the event that a lesson exceeds 45 minutes it will be charged as a double lesson, counting as two lesson sessions out of the 30 per year.

Lydia Zotto Biography:

Lydia Zotto is 22 years old and a graduate of the Eastman School of Music. She saw her first harp when she was 22 months old and told everyone she wanted to play one. Lydia began playing harp when she was five years old. At age 12, Lydia entered The Juilliard School Pre-College in Manhattan where she attended classes every Saturday for five years. Lydia is an alumna of the Woodland Montessori School and is currently pursuing her MBA in health care administration.
